The following outlines the amendments to ORS 352.375 in House Bills 2158 and 4021 as they pertain to University of Oregon tuition and fee charges for certain veterans.

The University of Oregon shall charge an enrolled student who is not a resident of this state and who is attending classes as an undergraduate (but not post-baccalaureate) or graduate student tuition and fees no greater than the resident rate if the student:

(a) Served in the Armed Forces of the United States;

(b) Was relieved or discharged from that service with either an honorable discharge or a general discharge under honorable conditions; and

(c) Provides proof that the student has established a physical presence in Oregon within 12 months of being enrolled at the University of Oregon.

A student who served in the Armed Forces of the United States and who receives federal tuition benefits in excess of the tuition and fees the person is charged under this policy shall pay tuition and fees equal to the federal tuition benefits received.

If a nonresident student otherwise eligible for tuition benefits under this policy is receiving federal vocational rehabilitation education benefits, that student shall pay full nonresident tuition and fees charged by the University of Oregon.

This policy applies to persons admitted as new but not continuing undergraduate students for enrollment to the University of Oregon on or after September 15, 2013.

This policy applies to persons admitted as new but not continuing graduate students for enrollment to the University of Oregon on or after September 15, 2014.

An eligible student should submit a copy of his/her DD214 to the Veterans Coordinator in 215 Oregon Hall.
