

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Authorization and Release

The University of Oregon periodically takes photographs or videos of school classes, events, and other functions reflecting student life at the University. In some instances, the University may wish to publish those photographs and/or videos on its Websites, in school catalogs, in the school alumni magazine, and/or in other publicity materials. If those photographs and/or videos contain enrolled students, they may be considered educational records under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), and therefore generally cannot be used without the prior written consent of the students appearing in the photographs and/or videos.

By signing this form, you are giving the University of Oregon permission to use your photograph and/or appearance in a video for the purposes of, and in the media, listed above.

1.0 I hereby authorize the University of Oregon to publish on the internet or in other official publications the following (check each that apply):

my photograph
my name
video footage of me
other: _____

2.0 I release the University of Oregon and its employees, agents, and assigns from any and all liability whatsoever arising out of the use, as applicable, of my photograph, video footage of me, my name and other items checked in 1.0.

3.0 If I am providing the University with a photograph or video footage, I assure the University that use of the photograph or video footage will not infringe any copyright or other rights, and I agree to hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims relating to the use of the photograph or video footage, including but not limited to claims of copyright infringement.

4.0 The authorization and releases mentioned above are made freely and voluntarily.

5.0 The authorization in paragraph 1.0 may be revoked by me in writing at any time. However such revocation will not apply to items checked in paragraph 1.0 that have already been published or released.

6.0 A copy or facsimile of this authorization and release shall be as valid and effective as the original.
